"Seeds of Change". Registrar Maggie Golightly said, "I am excited by all the positive changes taking place in our community. We have solar panels popping up everywhere, a local seed bank storing essential plant DNA, a local people's democracy movement, farmers' markets, community gardens.. we are in the midst of great changes that ensure our well-being as a community."

The Expo committee invite all artists and sculptors to create images that evoke our transformations. Visit www.osartexpo.com for information about the Expo and to register.

The closing date for entries is August 28th.
